

BUSINESS CLUB IS BACK!

The Business Club is a partnership between Gloucester Rugby and The Daffodil supported by Cotswold Style magazine and Circle2Success Ltd. After a busy summer the club which meets every Wednesday, 5pm -7pm at the Daffodil is reopening on the 18th September.

The Club has proved to be an enormous success since its launch in March this year with Gloucestershire business people. Many new relationships have been developed and business deals done. It is a great way to relax and unwind at the end of the day, meet like-minded people and network in style. With over 250 members and great offers from The Daffodil, the Club is growing from strength to strength.

Membership to The Club is FREE of charge and no need to register just pop along any Wednesday evening and join in.

To celebrate the launch of the 2013/2014 rugby season The Daffodil will delight members with a Cherry & White cocktail to kick off the evening.

Circle2Success (C2S) is a network of MD's; Partners and Directors of successful companies who support each other by sharing ideas and insights; short circuiting problems and developing alliances that add real value to Gloucestershire businesses. Sustaining business growth is only possible if you have a great team and critical to this is the next generation of managers and directors. Circle2Success provides opportunities to develop those rising stars, from learning key skills to being inspired by leading business owners.

'Being associated with the Business Club reinforces one of our key values, that by working together we can achieve so much more! It's always a relaxed evening and you meet some great people' says C2S Director Suzanne Hall-Gibbins

www.circle2success.co.uk

Founded in 1873, Gloucester Rugby possesses one of the longest and proudest histories in English club rugby.

Gloucester Rugby 2013-14: A season ahead that is full of potential and promise,

Director of Rugby Nigel Davies embarks on his second season at the Kingsholm helm in charge of a squad possessing international talent and even a British and Irish Lion in Billy Twelvetrees. Davies has chosen young forward Tom Savage to succeed Jim Hamilton as the new captain.

Kingsholm expects big things from the Cherry and Whites as the club is welcomed back to the top table of European Rugby in the Heineken Cup ready for nights that will turn Kingsholm into a fortress and welcome Europe's finest.

Gloucester Rugby kick off their new season at home to Sale Sharks on Saturday 7th September with a 15:00 Kick off.

www.gloucester rugby.co.uk

The kitchen operates under the vigilant eye of established Head Chef Tom Rains whose impressive career pedigree includes time at The Berkeley, L'Escargot, and Claridge's, as well as Sous Chef to culinary legend Anton Mosimann at his Belgravia Club before moving back to Cheltenham and heading up The Daffodil brigade in 2012.

The dining room menu features daily and seasonal specials combined with well established favourites and our aim is simple; to produce delicious and unpretentious classic dishes using the finest seasonal ingredients we can lay our hands on.

Serving Times - Monday to Saturday

Lunch: Midday – 2:30pm

Afternoon Tea: 3:00pm – 5:30pm

Dinner: 6:00pm – 10:00pm

www.thedaffodil.com

Cotswold Style Magazine

Cotswold Style Magazine is delighted to be the official media partner for the Business Networking Club. With a growing affluent readership of high earning professionals.

Style delivers a valuable audience of 35000+ hard copy regular readers with a further 20000+ digital readers making Cotswold Style a leading Lifestyle magazine within Gloucestershire and the wider Cotswold Region. The development of the monthly Business Style section in the magazine and the 'in magazine' quarterly business supplements on Exporting, Entrepreneurs, Food Producers, Women in Business and Great Places to Work have helped to create a strong, commercial marketing platform for local and regional businesses and professional services companies.

www.cotswoldstylemagazine.co.uk